"When I was first approached by inXile to create an original soundtrack for the Bard's Tale IV Barrows Deep, little did I know of the amazing musical journey I was about to embark upon.

Scotland's traditional and gaelic music is an intrinsic part of our history and culture. It's beautiful melodies reach deep into our souls and it's magical songs, passed down through the centuries, tell stories of a proud and ancient civilisation.

I wanted to capture the breadth of outstanding voices and musical ship that exists in my homeland and create a soundtrack fit for the Bard's Tale IV that reflected Scotland's unique musical heritage.

"These ancient songs tell us about how life was lived long ago but they also give us wisdom, vision and hope for the future."

I would like to say a huge thank you to all the amazing performers and musicians who contributed so much to this soundtrack.

Thanks to Paul, Rochelle and the mighty Kevin at Gorbals Sound.

Thanks to the Reverend Mel Langille and St John's Church.

Thanks to my writing partner the silver fox, Gregor Philp.

Thanks to Brain Fargo and Matt Findley for their endless support and for the opportunity to create an authentic music experience for the Bard's Tale IV.

Thanks To Nathan Long for his words.

A very special thank you to my friend Eilidh Mackenzie whose inspiration and knowledge and positivity made this project such a joy to work on.
