THE THRILL OF WINNING

ELECTRONIC ARTS®

The Thrill of Winning isn't just about getting the high score, the fastest time, or the upper hand. It's also the challenge, the adrenaline rush, and the decisions you make under pressure.

At Electronic Arts, our challenge is to create the best software. That's our thrill of winning. And we pass on that thrill of winning when you boot up any of our products.

Travel beyond the known reaches of space in Starflight 2. Try commanding the 688 Attack Sub and see if you can sneak past whole fleets without being detected. Be aggressive with the pros and crash the boards in Lakers vs. Celtics. Design a killer play that beats the master at his own game in John Madden Football. Or wow your boss with the animated presentation you whipped together in Studio/1.

Challenge yourself — that's the most important part of winning.

We've been bringing you software for six great years. And as long as you ask for bigger, better, and more advanced products, we'll be here to make them. As long as you hunger for the thrill of winning, we'll be ready to rise to your challenge.

Winning isn't everything — it's the EA thing.
