A message from Crazy Dimwit himself:
 You might ask, "How'd Crazy Dimwit end up in a business like this?" Well, there's no better way for a deposed monarch to blow off his excessive tendencies. You know, I was just out in one of my 18,000 warehouses and the place was a mess. The workers were excessively busy. Now, as I sit here in my plush office thinking to myself, one word keeps coming back to me (which happens a lot when you're crazy). That word — you guessed it — "excessive." I thought the warehouse workers weren't busy enough. Won't you help me drive them completely meshugge with my next excessively gigantic sale?

Write to me, Crazy Dimwit, with your ideas of products you would like me to offer to the public. For instance, softball shirts. You've all read about Infocom's championship softball team. And you've seen the great Hawaiian shirts that helped them win last year's title. Wouldn't you like to own one? Or what about a life-sized stuffed yak? And what about — hey, wait a minute! I got carried away. I always do since I'm excessive. So write to me, at my office at 125 CambridgePark Drive, Cambridge, MA 02140. But don't send your ideas for products. Send them to Cresskill, New Jersey. (The address is on the front of the order form. Or use the toll-free number.) I don't want to have to walk down to the fulfillment house in New Jersey just to drop off your order.

Still crazy after all these years,

Crazy Dimwit
