

SIEGE

The hordes approach! Is the moat full? Are the archers on the battlements? Is the drawbridge raised? Are the cellars full of food and water? Are there plenty of bandages and splints? Are the cauldrons of oil boiling atop the towers? Can your castle withstand the Siege??

Mindcraft presents: Siege. Finally, a strategic simulation of pulse pounding, thought provoking medieval style castle assault.

Historical and Fantastical elements combine to challenge your leadership with a never-ending variety of contests and dilemmas. Do your knights sortie against the rabble outside your gates? Can your spies learn the enemy's plans in the dead of night, and return to tell the tale? Is your wizard still strong enough to shroud the enemy camp in sheets of flame to halt their progress?

Siege gives you four castles to attack and defend. You can't do it all yourself; you must depend on your vassals and their troops, each with his or her own abilities and skills.

Attack or defend in any one-castle scenario, then test your mettle in extended campaigns to prove your mastery of the art of Siege. Or design your own scenarios. What if Highrock Fortress were held by trolls, or Usk'hem Gart by elves? More castles, more scenarios, and more campaigns are on their way from Mindcraft.

Man the battlements! Raise the drawbridge!

In Siege, you command the forces assaulting (or defending) one of many intricately-designed castles out of medieval fantasy.

Siege is a realtime strategic simulation, you control troops — peasants, knights, elves, wizards, trolls, goblins — all having their own strengths and weaknesses, and all commanders have their own personalities.

- Play one scenario or an entire campaign. Design your own onslaughts with the built-in Editor; you have complete control.
- 8-way scrolling Battlefields, Pop-up windows, and special Report displays
- Siege Towers, Battering Rams, Catapults, or Boiling Oil ... many weapons and defenses are at your troops disposal
- Historical troops: French, English, Celtic, and others to choose from
- Mythical troops: Elves, Goblins, Trolls, Giants, Beasts (including the dreaded Moat Squid), Wizards, Superheroes, and others
