Installing Gauntlet on a Hard Disk Drive

After you complete the procedure outlined below, Gauntlet will run entirely from your hard disk. The procedure will create a sub-directory on the hard disk and copy all relevant files to it. You will be asked to provide a name for the new sub-directory. If you want to use an existing sub-directory, just enter the name of that sub-directory in Step 3, and ignore the message about being unable to create a directory.

NOTE: Once Gauntlet has been copied to a hard disk, your floppy disk won't generate any more hard disk copies. However, you can transfer the hard disk installation capability back to your floppy disk from the hard disk by following the procedures given in the section entitled "Uninstalling Gauntlet from a Hard Disk Drive."

WARNING: Before you attempt either to make an archival backup of your hard disk, or to run a hard disk "optimization" or "defragmenting" program after having installed Gauntlet on the hard disk, first make sure that you follow the instructions to uninstall Gauntlet. If you don't, Gauntlet will no longer be executable from the hard disk, and you won't be able to re-install the program. After you make the backup or run the optimization program, follow the installation instructions given below to re-install the program on your hard disk. The instructions for hard disk installation are as follows:

- 1) Boot the system, if necessary, and get a C> prompt.
- 2) Insert the program disk, label side up, into the disk drive and close the disk drive door.
- 3) Type A:SETFIXED NAME, where NAME is the name you have chosen for the new directory. The name must not be longer than eight characters. When you press Enter, Gauntlet will install itself on the hard disk.
- 4) When the installation is complete, the system must be rebooted. To reboot, press the Ctrl, Alt, and Del keys all at the same time. To run Gauntlet from the hard disk after rebooting, type CD\NAME, where NAME is the new directory name, and press Enter. Then type GAUNTLET and press Enter. After a few seconds, the program will load into your computer's memory and the title screen will appear.

Uninstalling Gauntlet from a Hard Disk Drive

- 1) Boot the system, if necessary, and get an A> prompt.
- 2) Insert the program disk into drive A and close the drive door.
- 3) At the A> prompt, type UNINSTAL and press Enter.
- 4) When the process is complete, Gauntlet will no longer be executable from the hard disk. To re-install Gauntlet on a hard disk, follow the hard disk installing instructions already given.

The Goal

The goal is for one or two adventurers to survive the perils of the dungeon while collecting valuables and destroying evil creatures. Each level must be explored to find the exit(s) to the next level. How long you survive is determined by your health score, which will go up and down as you progress through the levels.

The Villains

Scattered throughout the depths of the dungeons you will find Monster Generators. Creatures spew forth from these generators at regular intervals. Each generator creates a specific type of villain. There are three different generator levels, creating monsters from merely strong to awesomely deadly. You can destroy the generators by shooting them or, for the tougher heroes, by pounding them into rubble or by using magic.

The monsters come in three levels of toughness (except Death, more on him later). A Level One ghost will take one hit to destroy, while a Level Three demon will take three hits to destroy.

GHOSTS: Stay away from ghosts. They will hit only once then disappear. That one hit can hurt a lot, so shoot them, don't run into them!

GRUNTS: Grunts will immediately move up and attack you with their clubs. Either fight them hand-to-hand or shoot them from a distance.

DEMONS: Demons will shoot fireballs at you from a distance, and they will bite fiercely when they get in range. The fireballs are far more harmful than their bites. Fight them hand-to-hand or shoot them.

LOBBERS: Lobbers attack by throwing rocks over the tops of the dungeon's walls. They run away, so if you intend to fight them you will have to corner them.

SORCERERS: Sorcerers can disappear while moving. They will attack evasively by flickering in and out of sight. They are immune to attack when invisible. Fight them hand-to-hand or shoot them.

DEATH: The Dark Prince drains health from you. He will steal up to 200 points from you and then die. Death cannot be killed by any weapon except magic.

The Dungeons

The dungeons are filled with a variety of objects...some good, some evil. You should collect the good ones and avoid the evil ones. Here are a few pointers to help you tell the difference.

POTIONS: Potions grant magical powers to those who know how to use them. When a potion is collected and used, all the monsters on the screen will be affected in proportion to the magical power of the hero wielding the potion. Some potions can be activated by a shot, but the effect is not as great.

SPECIAL POTIONS: These are just like regular potions when they are shot, but if they are collected, they give special bonuses to the player.

EXTRA ARMOR: Increases protection.

EXTRA MAGIC POWER: Increases the effect of potions.

EXTRA SHOT SPEED: Increases missile speed.

EXTRA SHOT POWER: Increases damage inflicted by missiles.

EXTRA FIGHT POWER: Increases hand-to-hand ability.

EXTRA PICKUP POWER: Increases ability to carry 10 to 15 items.

FOOD: Plates of cold food increase both your health and your score by 100 points.

CIDER: Cider is the same as food, except it can be destroyed by a careless shot.

POISON: This looks a lot like cider, but it takes one special power and 100 points of health when consumed.

KEYS: Score 100 points for collecting each key. Keys are used to open doors.

TREASURE: Treasure chests are worth 100 points each.

AMULET: A magical device that confers invisibility for a short time.

WALLS: Most walls are impenetrable, but some of the older ones can be crumbled by multiple shots.

TRAPS: Glowing floor patterns that make some walls disappear.

TRANSPORTERS: These powerful devices transport you to the nearest visible transporter. If there are several within the same distance, then one is chosen at random. There are ways to influence the direction of travel if you can find them.

EXITS: These labeled holes lead down to the specified level. If you do nothing for 30 seconds, then all the walls will disappear, freeing all monsters. After another 30 seconds (if you avoid any combat) the walls turn into exits.

When you use an exit, there is a chance that you will end up in a treasure room. Collect all the valuables you can and escape within the time limit for bonus points. No score will be awarded if you don't escape.

In general, players are immune to each other's shots, but in some portions of the dungeon they may be stunned or injured by careless fellow adventurers.
