The Halley Project: A Mission in Our Solar System

The Halley Project is looking for highly-skilled starpilots to participate in a top-secret space exploration. To qualify, you must successfully complete a series of ten missions, navigating by the stars in this authentic real-time simulation of the solar system. Out-of-this-world graphics make this a real journey through space. Special secret mission, too!
Available Spring 1986 Amiga (256K); Suggested Retail Price $44.95

The Halley Project is a trademark of Mindscape, Inc.

Keyboard Cadet

Learning to use the computer keyboard was never more fun or effective. Keyboard Cadet trains you to touch type using either the standard QWERTY or Dvorak keyboard and follows the course of study that typing teachers use. An on-screen keyboard shows users proper hand positioning and helps prevent "hunt and peck" typing. Three-dimensional graphics and an exciting game format keep the typist involved. Recommended for ages 8 to adult.
Available Spring 1986 Amiga (256K); Suggested Retail Price $39.95
