DEADENDERS

By Carol Sharp & The Dreaming Djinn

It's an everyday day in Herbert Square. In the Market place Pete & Kaff Squeals tend their stalls, Bendy is on his record stall and people mill around. Smelli's cafe is a hive of activity and people come and go from the launderette which Scary tends. In the shop Arfur Foulup looks worried whenever people hand him money and his daughter Meechelle is upstairs in her flat with her husband Loopy and somebody else's baby.

Suddenly into this idealistic scene of commonplace tedium there is a scream! "I'VE LOST MY WILLIE". It's Effi the old lady from the flat below Meechelle & Loopy, the Police are called and guess who gets the job, yes you, PC Donald "Dirty" Dance! Can you find Effi's Willie and when you do why is he squashed flat with two holes in his neck? Why do Mangie & Pet the barmaids of the Old Queen (no, not Bendy's boyfriend Colon, the pub!) so secretive. Does it all centre around Loo Squeals, mother to Pete Squeals and Paula Foulup, Grandmother to Meechelle (and most of the rest of the Square!) and great grandmother to THAT BABY!? What are the strange noises that emanate from Scary the punk's flat? Why does Dirty Dan's wardrobe snore? What is the significance of a framed photo of T Wogan? Why are all the crisps Garlic flavoured? Is the world round? Why are you reading this rubbish? Why am I writing it?

Donald Dance is not the brightest PC in the world (He's not even MSDos compatible!) which is probably why he's in Herbert Square that night, but he is suspicious. To solve the mystery he must question all the characters, i.e. "ASK BENDY ABOUT COLON", look closely at people "EXAMINE LOOPY" or rooms "SEARCH BAR" and always be alert, never drink on duty, but if you get peckish you could try one of Smelli's cafe's wonderful HOT DOGS!!!!
