

THE WARLOCK OF FIRETOP MOUNTAIN

A fighting fantasy game with revolutionary animated graphics
for your 48K Spectrum

Deep in the caverns beneath the threatening crags of Firetop Mountain, a powerful Warlock lives, guarding a fabulous treasure - or so the rumour goes. Several adventurers like yourself have set off for Firetop Mountain but none has returned. Do you dare follow them?

based on the Puffin Fighting Fantasy Gamebook of the same title by Steve Jackson and Ian Livingstone

Detail of illustration by Peter Jones

Interested in the latest computer books and software?

Penguin have many exciting future projects to share with you. There will be books on new models and machines, specific handbooks on graphics, sound and other functions, plus a terrific range of Puffin and Penguin Software, covering everything from arcade games to dieting!

We will keep you regularly in touch with the latest news, so just send your name, address, and any special interests to:

Penguin Books Ltd (Dept CMD)
536 King's Road
London SW10 0UH

General loading and running instructions

- 1 Position the cassette tape at the silent part before the program.
- 2 Connect the EAR socket on the SPECTRUM to the EAR or LOUDSPEAKER socket on your cassette recorder.
- 3 Adjust the volume of the cassette recorder to three-quarters maximum and the tone controls to maximum treble and minimum bass.
- 4 Type LOAD"". Do not press ENTER yet.
- 5 Start the cassette recorder and then press ENTER.

THE WARLOCK OF FIRETOP MOUNTAIN

Puffin Books, Penguin Books Ltd, Bath Road, Harmondsworth, Middx UB7 0DA

ISBN 0 14
088.098 4