You are Tralus. For as long as you can remember, you loved Perina, the beautiful daughter of a local landowner. Only one cloud blighted this idyllic time; your rival for Perina's affections, Grakus. When Perina came of age, both you and Grakus proposed marriage. After careful consideration, Perina chose you, and became your betrothed.

However, Grakus was a vindictive fellow. He decided that if he could not have Perina, then no one would. He poisoned her, and then framed you for her murder. Found guilty you were sentenced to death. The priests bound you, and carried out the sentence by throwing you down a ancient deep well, knowing that if the fall did not kill you, you would die of thirst, since the well was dry. You survived the fall, and for hours lay in agony. You resigned yourself to death, when Hades, god of the Underworld, appeared to you. 'Mortal', he said, 'I sympathise with the injustice which you have suffered. However, I will not interfere with affairs in the Overworld unless you prove yourself'.
