MULTIMEDIA LANGUAGE SYSTEM

The no-lessons approach to learn a new language.

Designed and developed by professors and researchers at SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY in the U.S., specialising in language learning, the multi award-winning Syracuse Language System uses the entire principle of total immersion in a foreign language without any translation.

The approach is the same as that used by a child learning his own mother-tongue: listening, memorising, playing in order to communicate with confidence.

Dull lessons and boring text books are replaced with interactive and entertaining games concerning every day subjects such as numbers, people, food, travel, home ... teaching basic vocabulary, short sentences and conversational skills all by native speakers.

All the above is made possible through the power of CD-ROM. With a few clicks on the mouse, play and listen to each section and scene in any order you like. The more you listen, the more you learn and understand.
