LOST IN THE AMAZON

Written and Programmed by Dorothy Millard

You are the lone survivor of an expedition to South America to find the famed Golden Condor. Your plane has crashed in the jungle and you are completely lost. You will need to find your way through the jungle without dying of thirst, deal with the natives, cross the river and make your way to the flat-topped pyramid. Can you conquer the sand trap and find the Golden Condor?

This adventure game understands all the standard adventure commands i.e. North, East, South, West, Up and Down which can be abbreviated to N, S, E, W, U, D. Some useful verbs are EXAMINE, LOOK, GET, DROP, GIVE, UNLOCK and many more. Other important commands are INVENTORY or (I) will give you a list of what you are carrying, SAVE will save the game position to tape and LOAD will restore a previously saved position from tape.
