

OPERA HOUSE

OPERA
HOUSE

OPERA
HOUSE

bignose software

1878

Chinese

Faint, illegible text on the right page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.

OPERA HOUSE

Every member of a chorus dreams of being out there at the centre of attention..... A STAR !!!

For most it remains just a dream, yet you have been chosen to sing at the world famous Palace Theatre. An operatic debut that will make your career soar to the top. Pausing only long enough to pack your few belongings into a battered case and scrounging enough money to pay your fare and lodgings in the cheapest accomodation available, you make the arduous and long journey to the National Opera Company.

Now your dreams lie in ruins as you stand beside the locked and deserted box-office of the now dilapidated Palace. There is no sign of life in the theatre. As you explore the side alley in a last desperate attempt to gain access you hear footsteps ringing in the writhing mist. You turn but see no sign of life. Your imagination has deceived you again.

Suddenly the world turns from grey to black, and you crumple at the knees.....

Opera House is a classic verb/noun text adventure. Using instructions such as Pull Lever or Examine Crossbow, you can explore the twilight world of the Phantom.

Movement can be abbreviated to N,S,E,W, or U(p) or D(own). 'I' will give you a list of what you are carrying and you may save and load before attempting anything too hazardous.

Can you locate the Phantom and save your career, even before it begins.

OPERA HOUSE © 1984 — BIGNOSE SOFTWARE

320 The Knares, Basildon, Essex