J: UNIVERSE BULLETIN BOARD

The Universe Bulletin Board System is provided for registered owners of Omnitrend's Universe. The purpose of the bulletin board is to allow players of Universe with a medium to exchange ideas and experiences with other players. In addition, new product announcements for Universe-related products will be placed on the bulletin board.

The bulletin board may be accessed via modem at either 300 or 1200 baud on the Omnitrend Software order line, (203) 658-6917, during the following times:

Monday through Friday: 7 pm to 9 am

Saturday: 3 pm to Midnight

Sunday: All Day

To access the bulletin board, dial the order line during the times listed above. The bulletin board will begin by prompting you for your username and password. Refer to your registration card to obtain this information. Note that when you enter your password, the numbers are not echoed on the screen. This is to help insure the secrecy of your password.

An on-line help facility is available to assist you in using the bulletin board. You will be allowed two hours of connect time per month on the system. If indicated, your account will be established immediately on receipt of your registration card. If not indicated, you may establish an account by contacting us by mail.

The Universe Bulletin Board is a complementary service to players of Universe. Omnitrend Software reserves the right to discontinue this service at any time.
