Scapeghost: (the latest from Level 9): It's not easy being a ghost; betrayed to a criminal gang and then falsely blamed for your own death when they escape with a hostage.

Reincarnated in your old haunts, you have just three nights to clear your name. But with your detective skills and new psychic powers, a spirited revenge is a dead cert. The gangsters haven't the ghost of a chance!

Ingrid's Back! (Level 9): Only accident-prone Ingrid Bottomlow can save the ludicrous gnomes of Little Moaning from being steamrollered for yuppie housing. A Zzap sizzler twice; Ace rated Ingrid at 920; Atari ST User called it "The funniest series of adventures ever to grace your ST" and C&VG concluded "Go out and buy a copy!"

Gnome Ranger (Level 9): in which Ingrid's bright ideas demolish the farm and she is "accidentally" banished to the wilderness by her family. The monsters won't know what's hit them! A Zzap Sizzler, Crash Smash, Your Sinclair Megagame etc.

Lancelot (Level 9/Mandarin): relives the authentic legends of King Arthur and his knights of the Round Table, including their finest adventure - the Quest for the Holy Grail. Micro User said, "Lancelot has just got to be Game of the Year for me", while CPC Computing concluded, "A masterpiece!".

Time and Magik (Level 9/Mandarin). Level 9's Magik trilogy: Lords of Time, Red Moon and The Price of Magik. Massive classic games with ten "Adventure of the Year" awards."

Knight Orc (Level 9/Rainbird): Grindleguts, a revolting orc, plans to defeat the humans for a change.

Silicon Dreams (Level 9/Rainbird): A challenging SF trilogy: Snowball, Return to Eden and Worm in Paradise. Save a starship, tackle alien jungles and beat the system in a robot city.

Jewels of Darkness (Level 9/Rainbird): The ultimate, mega-mix version of Level 9's acclaimed Colossal, Quest and Dungeon adventures in middle earth.

All games are sophisticated 3-part adventures with masses of text, inventive puzzles, good parsers, accompanying documentation - and cluesheets free to game buyers on request.
