New Role-Playing Adventures

Freddie Pharkas: Frontier Pharmacist

From Al Lowe, creator of Leisure Suit Larry, comes this wild and wooly western comedy, set in (of all places) Coarsegold, CA. Help Freddie, a gunslinger turned pharmacist, track down the ornery galoot that's ruining the good life in this scenic Sierra homestead.

Inca

Set out on a mystic mission across space and time in this groundbreaking action/adventure game from Coktel. Outstanding simulation technology lets you cruise through space, fighting 16th century Spanish galleons in the far-reaches of the cosmos. Advanced video capture sequences bring your adversaries to life as you battle conquistadors with swords and phasers. This is an epic adventure that challenges you to unravel ancient riddles so legends may live again.

The Prophecy

Embark on an adventure of magical mystery to save the Kingdom of the Blue Rocks from the evil wizard Kraal. Your journey takes you through a fantastic, medieval universe of art, romance, mystery, murder and wizardry. You'll battle your way through dangerous mazes and fight heinous creatures. Features sweeping 3-D animation, brilliant VGA graphics, and a mystic soundtrack.

Sierra Discovery Series

Alphabet Blocks

Now any child who can use a mouse can learn to read! Alphabet Blocks is a revolutionary educational program that teaches your child all the letters and sounds of the alphabet using accurate, synchronous facial expressions and digitized speech. In this fun, engaging introduction to alphabet sounds and names, two computer friends coach your child through reading basics and give your child a significant head start in reading proficiency. It's real education that's real fun for children ages 3 and up.

Adi Jr. Vol. I and Vol. II

Children will love these whimsical programs that give them a head start in school. Each volume offers your child fun and challenging ways to learn basic math and reading. Plus, each time an exercise is completed, your child is rewarded with an exciting game. Adi Jr. is great learning entertainment for children, ages 3 to 6.

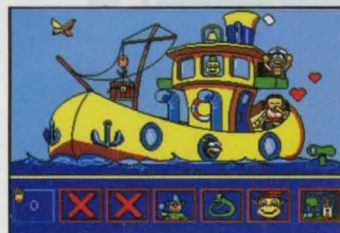

Freddie Pharkas is going to save the town from outlaws. You might die laughing.

Strap in for fast action arcade battle in outer space and fulfill the Inca prophecy.

Children have fun learning the alphabet when they see and hear letter sounds.

Pre-schoolers through early readers have a great time learning from cartoon characters.
